A STORY BY MONICA

The Adventures of the Fairy and the Mouse

Written and illustrated by Monica Wardini

Meet the Characters

Bob the Mouse

nice · funny
clumsy · dumb

The Fairy

smart · never tired pretty

The Enchanted Forest

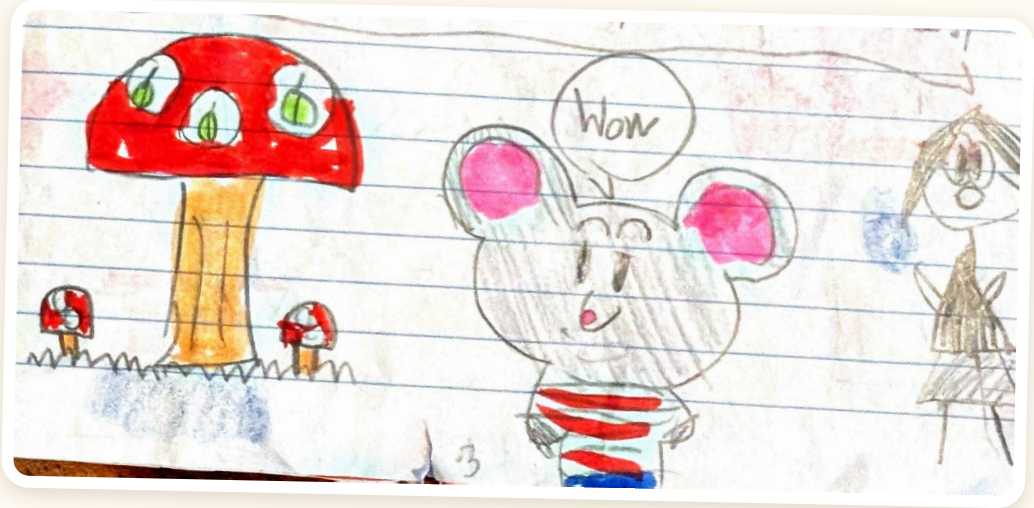

dangerous… and waiting for an adventure

Once upon a time, there was a mouse named Bobble Head. But I like to call him Bob. He is 132 years old, but he looks very young for his age. Here is a picture of him.

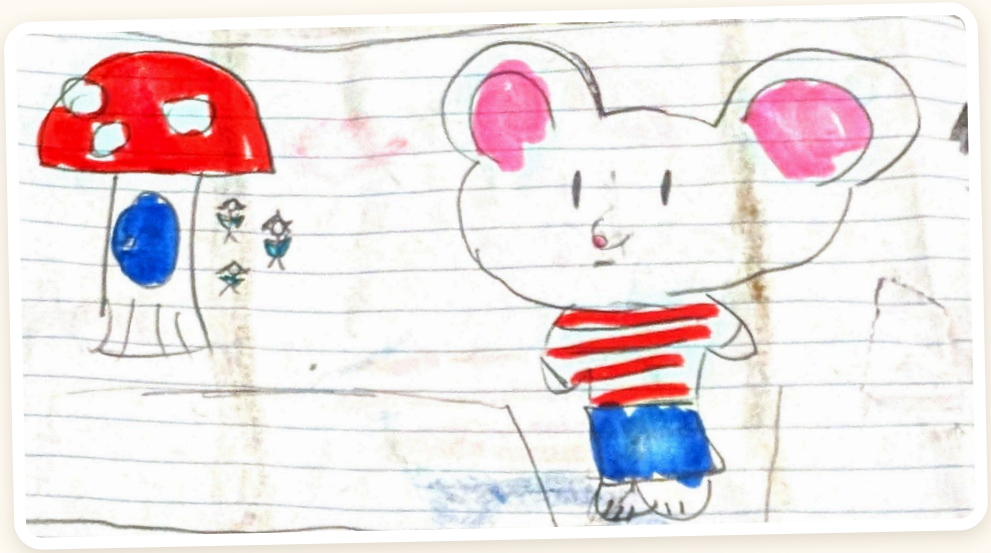

Fact: A.K.A. means “also known as.”

One day, Bob (A.K.A. Bobble Head) was taking a stroll, and he saw a mushroom tree. At his work, there is a rumour that fairies live inside.

So he decided that he was going to pick some mushrooms. By accident, his hand hit the tree! Then a bunch of fairies fell out of the tree and said, “What do you want?!” Bob said, “Nothing.”

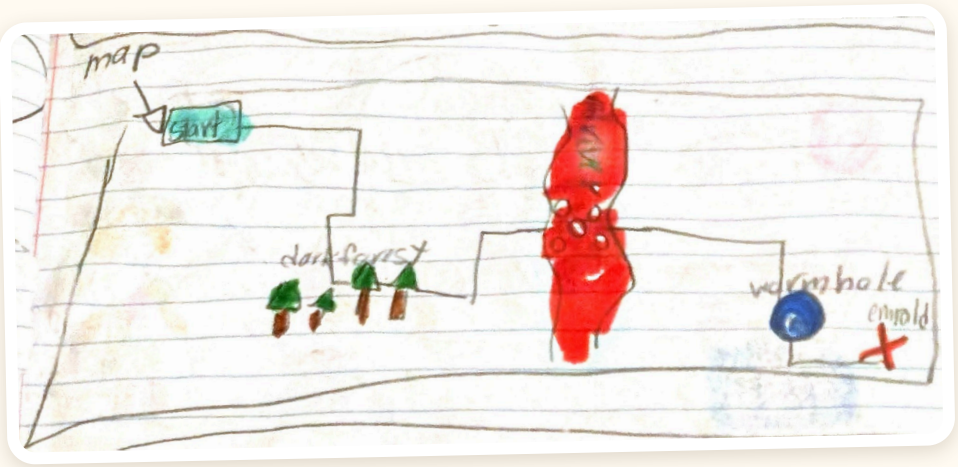

The fairies said that they were going to spread rumours about him. Bob said, “Please don’t! I’ll do anything!” The fairies talked for a little bit. Then they said, “Fine. You need to go get the Fairy Emerald. We need it for our safety. And then you’re free.”

Bob: “Fine, but I have to go with somebody!”

The fairies said, “Well, guys, who wants to go with him? It’s not going to be me.” A fairy named Bella stepped out of the crowd and said that she wanted to go. So… well… they invited Bob to show him the map to get there, and to give him food for the trip.

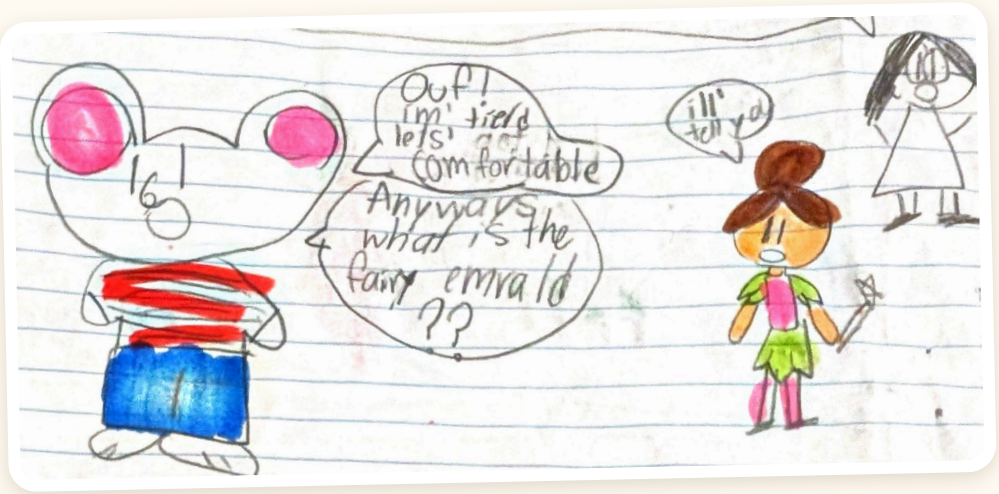

The map: Start → Dark Forest → Red River → Wormhole → the Emerald ×

Two hours later, they were off on the adventure. They crossed the Dark Forest. When they were right in the middle, it got dark, so they made a tent and a fire.

Bella: “I hope he doesn’t eat me if he’s hungry.”

In the morning, they saw a fire bear. It was trying to eat them, but they hid in a bush. Little did they know, the bush had poison ivy! So they ran away into a small corner.

Bob: "Oof! I'm tired. Let's get comfortable. Anyways, what is the Fairy Emerald??" Bella: "I'll tell you."

Bella said, "A long time ago, fairies were hunted by fire bears, but the only thing that would protect them was the Fairy Emerald. The emerald shines in their faces and it hurts them. But now we lost it, so we are forced to live in mushroom trees, because fire bears are allergic to them. We used to live in bushes and normal trees."

Bella: "Done." Bob: "Wow."

Bob says, “Look, it’s the Red River!” Bella says, “How are we going to get across?” Then Bob has an idea: they can take big rocks and walk on them. Little did they know, the rocks were already placed.

Bob: “Let’s go!”

Bella says, “Wait a minute, I can just fly across!” So she flies to the other side, while Bob has to jump across. But the rocks were moving… because they were turtles!

Bob: “Whoa!” Bella: “Come!”

Finally, they arrived at the wormhole. All they had to do was put Bob on Bella's back, and then they flew across.

They arrived, and Bella said, "Get scammed! I was a fire bear this entire time! And I'm going to break the emerald, so fairies always stay sad!" But Bob could just eat Bella (A.K.A. Fire Bear), because she was small. So he ate her, and gave the emerald to the fairies.

Bob: "Tastes good!" … "Here." Fairy: "Thank you! Sorry about Bella. Bye."

Moral

Be a trustworthy friend.
Don't lie, and don't use violence — physical or insults. No, no, no!

Author's Letter

I have a brother who insults me, but all you have to do is scream, "Mama! Dada! He's bothering ME!!!" And then your sibling is going to stop being mean. If you don't have an annoying sibling, lucky YOU!!

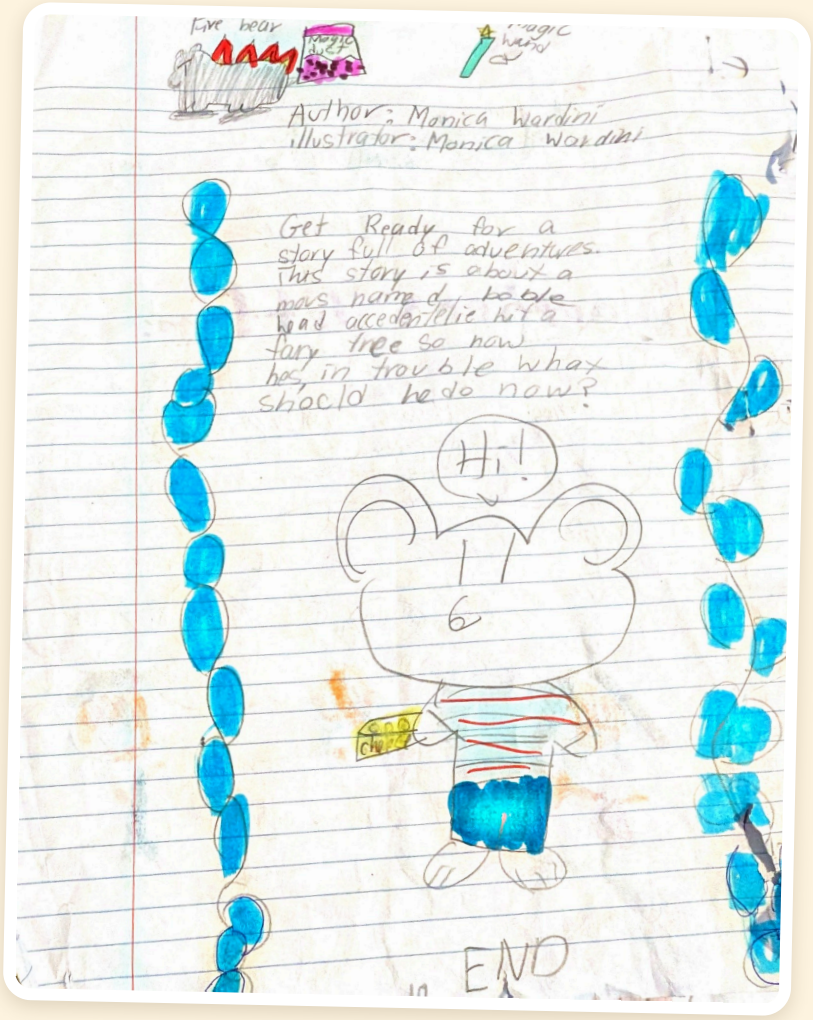

What happens to me EVERY DAY

Me (whispering): "1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9..." My brother: "You still count with your fingers? Ha! Ha!"

The End

Get ready for a story full of adventures! This story is about a mouse named Bobble Head who accidentally hit a fairy tree, so now he's in trouble. What should he do now?

Author: Monica Wardini · Illustrator: Monica Wardini